2 Local Church Buildings Dedicated

The Lakeside Star

Vol. IX | Lakeside, San Diego County, California, Tuesday, August 3, 1954 | No. 13

Structure Result of Support

The new sanctuary and educational buildings of Lakeside First Baptist church were dedicated Sunday with impressive ceremonies that began at 11 a.m., continued through the afternoon and ended with the showing of colored pictures taken during various stages of the construction.

The Reverend Floyd Looney, editor of the California Southern Baptist Paper, appeared as guest speaker at the 11 a. m. service.

Dr. S. G. Posey, executive secretary of the California Southern Baptist convention, spoke at the afternoon service, which began at 2:30, and the Reverend T. E. Roberts, Jr., Lakeside Community Presbyterian church, was the speaker at the final service which began at 7:30 p. m. and was designated Lakeside Night.

Will Serve 740

The new Spanish-Monterery architectural style buildings have a total floor space of 12,460 square feet. The educational facilities will serve 740 Sunday school students, and the sanctuary has a seating capacity for the same number.

The new structures represent 15,000 man hours of construction work over the 16-month period since a ground-breaking service was held on the first Sunday of March, 1953.

On that day last year an offering of $15,000 in cash and pledges was taken for the new buildings which are valued at $150,000.

Women also played their parts in the construction by preparing 300 meals for the working men, mostly volunteers, who were directed by H. E. Coates, construction superintendent.

Gifts and the sale of Broadway church bonds by the congregation financed the program and answered the desires of the Reverend Earl R. Bigelow, pastor.

Members Agree

Congregation members and friends of the church, when interviewed Sunday evening, said they thought the construction of the new buildings was one of the most important projects in Lakeside's history.

Mrs. Mary Margaet Head, former educational director of the church, spoke for most of the congregation when she said,

"I think it's marvelous. I think it will be a magnificant testimony to the Lord. It is a definite result of the spirit of people of the church, and the spirit of love and cooperation with each other."

Though not a member, Mona Lee McGee, resident of Macogodoches, Texas, who is spending her summer in Lakeside, also praised the new church buildings and what they represent. "It just thrills me to know that Christian people can erect something of this sort as a testimony to the Lord," Miss McGee said.

'Days of 49' Slated September 18-19

DAYS OF OLD—Above picture was taken during one of the "Lakeside Days of 49" programs in the past. It shows Lakeside men and women attired in the style clothing worn by the frontier people 100 years ago. The scene, of course, is a typical "saloon" of the nineteenth century, and the woman pose as the B-girls of those times.

Lakeside Captures Big Fish

Thousands of yachtsmen and anglers all along the Southern California coast had sought the honor of landing the first marlin of the season, but it took a woman — Mrs. William A. Hoss of Lakeside — to gain this honor.

Mrs. Hoss, who lives on Walnut road, Winter Gardens, answered her desires Sunday while fishing six miles southwest of the Coronado Islands. The marlin was taken on medium tackle and live mackerel bait was used.

It took the Lakeside anglerette one hour and 20 minutes to land the first spikebill of 1954 which weighed 186 pounds. Although several other marlin hookups had been reported earlier in the season, her fish was the first actual catch.

First marlin catch last year was credited to Al Penrose, Marlin club president who landed one weighing 164 pounds on July 19, 1953.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoss, members of the Balboa Angling club, continued fishing Sunday at Balboa, which they visited in their boat. They returned to their home Sunday night.

Chairman Appointed For Annual Feature

September 18 and 19 will be the BIG days of 1954 for Lakeside as a result of concrete plans arranged by civic and business leaders at a special meeting held last Wednesday night in the Lakeside Electrical Appliance store. At this meeting Robrt Watkins, Lakeside Chamber of Commerce president, was appointed temporary program chairman, and Earl Allen and the Frontier Riders were named to handle parade asrangements for the "Lakeside Days of 49" on those two days.

Dick Murray and Carol Ray, chamber of commerce building committee members, had been named co - chairmen a few months ago but their heavy schedules forced them to relinquish this assignment. However, Murray agreed to serve as publicity chairman at last Wednesday night's meeting, while Ray was appointed concessions chairman.

Other chairmen named last week were Dick Stout, barbecue; Mrs. Blossom Weston, auction; and Bill Farmer, dance. The queen contest will be handled by all organizations that wish to enter girls, and Watkins said he will endeavor to find sponsors for girls who wish to enter the contest but do not already have such a sponsor.

Further plans regarding the whiskerino contest were discussed at last week's meeting. and Septembr 4 wase set as the final day on which a man can enter this affair. A $2 fee will be charged, officials said, and no beard may be started before the day on which a contestant signs up.

Another feature of the 1954 program will be the bed-down service like that which proved to be a real success last year. A chairman remains to be named for this event.

Other events tentatively scheduled to be held on September 18 and 19 at the War Memoroial Building include an old-fashion "lynching"; a parade that will feature old stage coaches; a majorette contest; movies for children; entertainment for adults, including dances; and auctions.

New Water District Study Set

Proposals for two water districts that include essentially the same El Cajon Valley section are to be discussed Thursday by the San Diego County Water Authority, and officials except one to be approved before next week arrives.

The Rio-San Diego Municipal Water district has been proposed by a special committee representing Lakeside Irrigation district, Riverview Farms Mutual Water company and Lakeside Farms Mutual Water company. Committee members are Buster Hanvey, chairman; George R. Ripley, Ed Walter, Charles Lucas, Jack McLean and Art Foster.

The other proposal calls for the establishment of a Rancho-El Cajon Water district. R. W. Scruggs of La Cresta heads the committee which discussed this plan May 24 at the Wagon Wheel.

Hanvey said his group opposes the Rancho-El Cajon Water District plan "because it includes more dry land, we think, than the area we now have water on."

By "dry land," he said he meant an area that has no distributing system; only private wells. This includes the Santee area, a section west of Riverview, San Vicente farms, an area east of Lakeside not now in the Irrigation district, and another section east of Winter Gardens, he explained.

Boundaries of the Rio-San Diego Municipal Water district which his group favors include the old Mission San Diego Rancho section of San Diego in the west; the La Mesa-Lemon Grove Irrigation district line on the east, and the old Rancho El Cajon boundary on the north.

After one of these two proposals wins the approval of SDCWA and Metropolitan Water district, an election will be called to officially form the district.

Any persons desiring to donate items to be auctioned are asked to phone Barker, HIckory 3-1321, or Lesley Kephart, HIckory 3-1106.

It's Parcel Post Sale! 'Days of 49' Plan Set

Mrs. Florence Beadle, Lakeside historian whose "general store" exhibit in the San Diego County Fair won high honors last month, announced plans yesterday (Monday) for a "Parcel Post Sale" she will present as a feature of the "Days of 49" program in September. The announcement came in the form of a poem she wrote as follows:

Lakeside is having "49er" celebration!
We're asking folks all over the nation,
To send us a package to sell for half a buck;
It's lots of fun to "try our luck."
We'll sell it as it comes through the mail,
That's why it's called a "Parcel Post Sale."
The 18th and 19th of September is our date,
Please send your parcel so it won't be late.
Just address it to the name undersigned,
And we'll thank you a lot for being so kind.

Lakeside All-Stars Gave Backers Ample Reason to Cheer

GOOD SPORT—Danny Kern, one of the Lakeside All-Stars who played in the area Little League tournament in El Cajon Thursday through Saturday, says a boy learns sportsmanship by participating in this sport.

Lakeside's Little League All-Stars suffered a loss in their third game of the three-day district tournament staged Thursday through Saturday in El Cajon. But the players and their many rooting fans returned to Lakeside completely satisfied with their showing against El Cajon and Escondido teams before capacity crowds.

Most of all, the boys themselves admitted they had enjoyed an experience they will never forget; and all agreed, too, that their adventures during this dwindling 1954 season had taught them the value of good sportsmanship.

One good example is Danny Kern, leftfielder whose homerun with two men on the bases in the seventh inning enabled the Lakesiders to beat the Escondido All-Stars, 8 to 5, in their second tourney tilt.

Danny, playing his third and final Little League season, said, "I like the league and it teaches you good sportsmanship. And you meet a lot of boys.

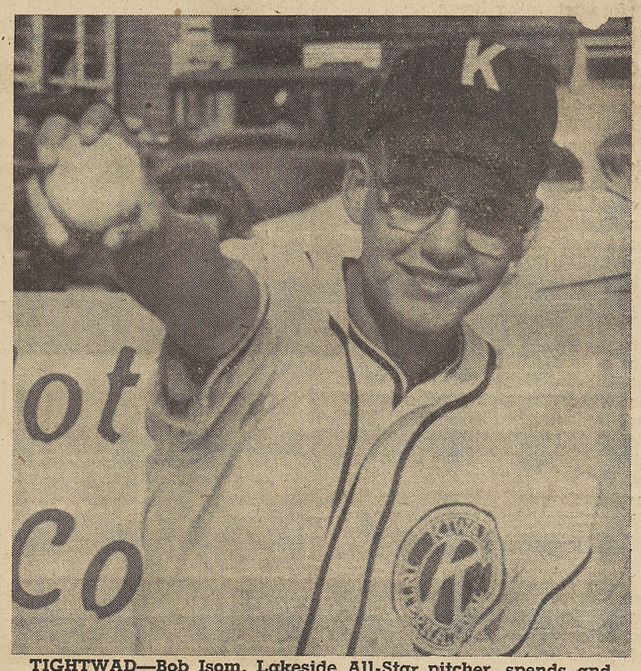

"I learned a lot of different things about baseball, my favorite sport, this season, too. So I'm proud we won a few games for Lakeside."

This modest youth had reason to be proud of his exhibition against the Escondido pitchers. By chance, his timely homer was the 15th one he had hit this season. But he emphatically declared that his teammates played their parts well.

Danny's father, Elmer Kern, El Monte Park warden, was among the fans who cheered for the local All-Stars during the tournament. After Friday night's skirmish, he said, "This is Danny's third year, right on the heels of his brother, Bobby, who played his third and final year of Little League baseball in 1953.

"When Danny and Bobby went into this league I told them to take it in the good way by being good sportsmen. That means a lot in their lives."

TIGHTWAD—Bob Isom, Lakeside All-Star pitcher, spends and gives his money quite freely, friends say, but he certainly was "tight" with the hits he allowed Escondido boys in a tournament game last Friday.

Lakeside Children Saved Off Beaches

Martha and Jerry Dunham, 11 and 12, of Route 1, Lakeside, were rescued from a hole in an unguarded area between New Mission and Old Mission beaches Friday by lifeguards.

The two children suffered only slightly from fatigue, according to the Mission Beach Lifeguard station.

Less than 5 percent of the persons who invested in vending machine franchise offers made by individual promoters made any money from the operation, the Better Business Bureau reports.

BIG JOB—General route of a proposed underwater telephone cable system, linking the 48 states and Alaska, is shown above. The cable would be built by the Long Lines Department of American Telephone and Telegraph company and would span some 800 nautical miles between Seattle, Washington, and Ketchikan, Alaska.

Tide Water Associated Oil Company Buys Assets Of Star-Crescent Firm

Substantially all of the assets of the Star and Crescent oil company, used in the distribution of petroleum products in San Diego for 32 years, have been acquired by the Tide Water Associated Oil company, Oakley J. Hall, president of Star and Crescent announced yesterday (Monday).

The exclusive distributor of Tide Water Associated products in San Diego county for many years, Star and Crescent has been one of the principal independent marketers of petroleum products here, a Tide Water release stated.

Properties acquired by Tide Water Associated include four distributing plants, a marine service station at the foot of G street in San Diego and a chain of service stations located in El Cajon, La Mesa, Fallbrook, Vista, National City, Chula Vista, Carlsbad, Oceanside, La Jolla, Pacific Beach and Escondido.

In commenting on the transaction, Hall said: "The sale of Star and Crescent was prompted by my desire to retire from the oil business, in order that the Star and Crescent companies might devote full-time to their transportation, shipbuilding and other interests in San Diego. We have enjoyed harmonious business relations with Tide Water Associated for many years."

Jack Clendenon, operator of Star and Crescent's Associated service station, 305 West Main street, El Cajon, said: "My relationship with Mr. Hall has always been one of coperation and friendliness. He was a fine gentleman to work with."

"I know nothing about the transaction, except that Tide Water Associated now owns my phase of Star and Crescent, and that it is an outstanding company noted for its quality in products and personnel," Clendenon added.

Ray M. Kennet will head Tide Water Associated's organization in San Diego and Fred Morton is to be the local distributor of Tide Water products in the Foothills area.

Other occupants of the car were injured, two seriously. They were Theodore H. Cooper, driver of Palm City, serious injuries; Miss Helen Wallace, 18, San Diego, serious head injuries, and Richard Massera, 22, Palm City, slight injuries.

Laborer Injured In Tractor Remains Critical

La Mesa Community hospital reported yesterday (Monday) that Sidronio Perez Lopez, 32, Mexican contract laborer seriously injured in a tractor accident on Pepper Drive, El Cajon, Sunday, July 24, is still in critical condition.

A special nurse, assigned to Lopez, said that his condition must still be listed as critical because of a consistently high fever which has not broken since he was admitted to the hospital over a week ago.

"Lopez has been taken to surgery several times in an attempt to save his left leg, injured just below the knee, and the doctors still are not certain they can save it," the nurse said.

Lopez' leg was badly mangled in an accident which still has investigating officers baffled as to its exact cause.

As near as can be determined, the employe of the Arboledo Rancho was driving along Pepper drive when the rear axel of his tractor sheared off after a tire struck soft dirt. The tractor turned over and burned.

Lopez was either pinned beneath the tractor, for a time, or was struck by the rear wheel as it rolled free from the sheared axle.

The hospital reported that Lopez received head and internal injuries plus the severe injury to his left leg.

Letter to Editor

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the sponsors, the managers and the players in the County Girls Softball association I would like to express my personal appreciation for the publicity given to girls softball in your newspapers.

Through such publicity our crowds have increased and will continue to grow. Through your interest, girls softball is becoming more important to the San Diego sports picture.

As ASA commissioner for girls softball I again want to thank you for your assistance.

Ralph L. Duesbury,
Amateur Softball Commissioner

Dear Editor:

More than a year ago you published in your newspaper my statement: "The church people do not know and live the first law of physical life or they would not have white bread on their tables."

I find since, that they do not care to know and live it; except the Adventists who preach it, but few live it.

They say the important thing is to save the human soul by taking Christ as our own personal saviour. Granting that this is true, is that any reason for ignoring the thing of secondary importance?

Is it right to save a soul and let the physical body go to hell?

Religion that keeps us well is more complete! Our true Christian Science teaches right living, or living God's way. No sick persons should be allowed in church and no one barred either.

There are many records in the Bible of Christ healing the sick. How long did they stay healed if the cause of their sickness was not removed or discontinued?

This letter names one of the causes today. It is quite well established in fact that Christ's mission was to save the world from sin.

What we lack is a more practical application of the scriptures so that this can be accomplished. It is as great a sin to make refined flour from wheat flour for human consumption as it is to make alcohol from grapes and barley.

Why are people dying in middle age or younger, regardless of their religion?

I have named one of the reasons. There are at least two others just as bad.

Liquor License Surrendered To State Board

Thomas Whelan, attorney for Louis F. Vallin, limited partner in a cafe at 345 West Main street, El Cajon, surrendered a liquor license Thursday to the State Board of Equalization after charging that Attorney General Brown's office was starting a "reign of terror" in San Diego.

Whelan, former San Diego county district attorney, said that his client surrendered the license to the San Diego area equalization board a month ago.

Vallin was a limited partner in the El Cajon cafe with Mathew and Ruth Howard, Whelan testified. When the Howards went out of business a month ago, he said, Vallin was given the power of attorney for the liquor license; and because there was $8000 indebtedness against the license, the San Diego tavern owner chose to surrender it.

William M. Bennett, deputy attorney general, disclosed that he would try to reopen the hearing if the license is not cancelled. Vallin obtained the license for a building at 1410 West Palm street, San Diego, though he did not own the building and did not intend to convert it to a restaurant or cocktail lounge, Bennet said. This license, he added, was transferred for $200 a month to the Howards' restaurant.

Whelan accused Bennett and Attorney General Brown with generating passion and prejudice against persons indicted by the grand jury for liquor license violations. He charged that the attorney general's office promised certain tavern owners "immunity" from prosecution and retention of their liquor licenses in return for testimony in forthcoming criminal cases.

In reply, Bennett said the hearing dates were set by Edward J. Clark, state liquor administrator, and not the attorney general's office. He also said that witnesses were not subpoenaed for political purposes and could decline to testify; and that he had been threatened by William Bonelli, Southern California member of the board of equalization, before the San Diego hearings began.

The hearings were scheduld to resume yestrday (Monday).

Citrus Packing Plant For Sale Due To Decline

Influence of the residential subdivision propects on business in the El Cajon valley was reflected this past week in the announcement that the valley's last citrus packing house was for sale for $85,000.

Robert Bald, president of the El Cajon Valley Citrus association, which owns the plant, said a vast decline in fruit production in this area led to the move to sell the packing house.

The building of residential subdivisions has caused a decline in the acreage used for citrus crops, he said, and the swing from citrus to avocados has also hurt the citrus business here.

The plant will handle 80 carloads of fruit this seasons compared to 225 cars in peak years. First built in 1916 and rebuilt in 1926, it has had six regular employes in recent years. During harvest season, however, it provided employment for many more persons who did piece work packing and other chores.

For economy, necessitated by the crop decline, the manager and bookkeeper have divided their time between the El Cajon plant and another plant in Lemon Grove. The latter packing plant will continue business, Bald said.

Insecticides Dangerous

A variety of insteciticides have been utilized in San Diego county to eradicate insect pests. Recent reports, however, show that these poisonous insecticides have caused grave illness among some field workers. So persons purchasing insecticides are urged to inquire if they contain organic phosphates which are dangerous.

Foothills School Face New Enrollment Records This Fall; Steps Taken To Remedy Overcrowded Conditions

Grossmont and Helix high schools are among the many in San Diego county that will experience new enrollment records this fall, and as a result classrooms at both schools will be overcroweded despite the addition of portable classrooms.

At Grossmont an increase of 550 students is expected in September. To keep the school facilities in balance with the increase as well as possible, the district has contracted for 10 portable classrooms.

Grossmont high school enrollment reached 2600 this June, 300 more than in June, 1953, and Superintendent Lewis Smith said it will be 2950 when the 1954-55 term begins.

The Helix high enrollment climbed from 1400 in June 1953, to 1600 this past June. But the increase has continued and Mr. Smith said that 1800 pupils will enroll there next month.

First real relief from this growing burden will come in September, 1955, when the new high school in El Cajon, with a capacity of 1500 students, will be completed.

Foothills elementary school enrollments also face an increase. Lemon Grove's school enrollment is expected to climb from 2588 this past June to 2750 pupils this fall.

La Mesa-Spring Valley enrollment will jump from 7272 in June to an exepcted 7950 in September. Some of the burden will be eased, however, by the opening of the new Murray Manor school and six more classrooms and a multi-purpose room at Casa de Oro school. In September, 1955, further relief will be provided by the new junior high school under construction in Spring Valley.

Santee enrollment climbed from 469 in June 1953, to 535 this June, and at least 600 pupils are expected to enroll in September. But four new classrooms will prevent double sessions.

Federal aid is being sought in Lakeside because the enrollment is expected to reach 1150 in September. The addition of 88 pupils in the last 12 months brought the total to 1059 at the close of the school year in June.

An enrollment of 450 is due in Alpine next month. This is an increase of 30 over last June, and Superintendent Frank S. Brown declared he does not want "teachers and children to use several rat traps for classrooms" any more.

Del Mar Airport Manager Praised

Del Mar Chamber of Commerce voted this past week to send a letter of commendation to Frank Strauss, Del Mar Airport manager, citing improved airport operation and maintenance.

Stauss has extended the runway from 2500 to 3500 feet, landscaped the grounds and added a restaurant, the chamber was told.

QUESTIONS ABOUT WILLS

Many people have asked questions about their wills and the disposition of property since our last articles on the subject. Here are a few questions and answers that may interest you.

Q. Is a will a business document?

A. Yes, since it transfers property and has other business outcomes. The same is true of joint tenancies and gifts.

Q. Is a will made 20 years ago any good?

A. It may be. Yet, your marriage may have changed; children or grandchildren may have been born; the value and type of property may have changed, and joint tenancies may have been created. Such factors, including tax law changes may outmode your will, though it is still legally in effect. The fact that the courts must put it into effect, in fact, may be its worst feature. Better review it and see if it is what you want.

Q. Should a will be long or short?

A. As a rule, prefer a simple will. It accords with most people's wishes. Yet a short will may not be adequate. It may create complications, or give rise to additional taxes. Like a business contract, the length and terms of the document rest upon the circumstances and the things you want done, and upon the tax laws. It is the situation basically, not the will that is simple or complex.

Q. Does a will dispose of property held in joint tenancy?

A. As a rule, no.

Q. Should you coordinate the wills of several persons?

A. Often you will want to review and, if need be, draft new wills for persons who share in the same property or who are beneficiaries in the first will. You do this, of course, when it can be done with propriety.

DEL MAR TURF CLUB

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"
By C. WILSON HARDER

Some in Washington feel if Congress had more like Sen. John J. Williams of Delaware, lower taxes, lower Federal budget would be a reality instead of theory.

When the Senator was 18 he left the family farm and started his own hay and grain business and was engaged in independent business for the not inconsiderable years until his election to the U. S. Senate in 1946. So the Senator does not have the disrespect for the dollar common among those who have little idea how difficult it is to lay aside one for a rainy day.

C.W. Harder

The other day the Senator was audibly concerned with a few items in the operation of U. S. Farm programs.

He stated for example, a doctor, with a good income, secured a Farm Credit Administration loan of $16,675. He also states he found an Otto Zurcher of Arapahoe, Col. engaged in the construction business via FHA loans and also operating a rather elaborate tourist camp tapped the same source for $58,100. He also stated he found that J. Frank Kendrick, an Agriculture Dept. employee at $8,400 per year and a worth of $62,000 received a loan of $35,164 in 1951 to put more buildings on his Ohio farm.

Other unusual facts are coming to light on nations' farm programs.

For example, the largest price support loan in 1953 was given to a Mississippi corporation owned by a concern in Manchester, England. From its 38,000 acres, the British got U. S. loan of $1,269,492.00 on 7,220 bales of cotton. Average Mississippi cotton farmer received $372.

Figgen Inc., operating in California's San Joaquin Valley, got $1,246,516.46 on 7,314 bales of cotton.

Seattle's Horrigan Investment Co. received $201,832 on wheat.

Largest corn loan went to Adams Bros. & Co., a family partnership headed by R. G Adams, trustee of a large insurance firm with homes in Iowa and Miami Beach His firm received $190,-944. The average Iowa corn grower received $2,154.

Government records show only 64 corporate farms accounted for almost $18 million in government loans. And this is a situation of which Agriculture Secretary Ezra Benson is aware; is even said to deplore.

Independent businessmen, knowing nation's welfare rests on independent family sized farms along with independent business opportunity, have willingly paid taxes to help tide over independent farmers while squeezed between domestic surpluses and flood of cheaply produced imported farm products.

But independent businessmen little relish tapping of their tills for benefit of wealthy corporate farm ventures, including British owned ones. As long as this situation continues whereby big corporation farms are subsidized to produce surpluses, and foreign imports continue, the problem of the taxpayer, the consumer or of the independent farmer will never be solved. Former Agriculture Secretary Charles Brannan proposed to limit price support loans to the first $25,000 worth produced on any farm. Now businessmen wonder what plan Secretary Benson has to stop this abuse.

Unemployed People Get Better Deal

Burying relatives no longer will bar unemployed persons from receiving unemployment insurance, William A. Burkett, director of the California Department of Employment, announced today at a meeting of the department's labor-management committee.

"Since 1946, previous administrators of the department have ruled that an unemployment insurance claimant must be available for work on every day of his nomal working week, to remain eligible for benefits," Burkett said. "In normal situations, such a policy is reasonable. But when it is enforced at the expense of an individual's personal rights, we should take steps to restore realism and humanity to administration of the law.

"The law was designed to help people when they need help," he pointed out.

Burkett stated the rigid adherence to the letter of the law, which was favored by his predecessors, resulted in denial of benefits to persons on what he termed "unfair technicalities," Many claimants, he said, were found unavailable for work because they had spent all or part of one day attending funeral services for relatives, appearing in court as witnesses, and in other necessary humane or civic activities.

Foothills Farmers Asked To Answer Five-Year Census

Foothills area farmers will be asked to supply information to the nation's census takers this fall, according to a report from E. C. Moore, farm advisor for the University of California.

On October 1, 30,000 census enumerators will begin calling at farms all over America to collect information for the regular five-year census.

Local farmers, like all other farmers throughout the nation, will be asked questions on such things as acreage, size of farm, venture, crops. Other pertinent questions will concern whether the farm has television, a food freezer, a tractor, machinery, and its amount of labor, Moore said.

Before the census taker calls on farmers a questionaire will be sent out by the Department of Commerce. The questionaire will cover approximately 100 questions and many of them require only a checked "yes" or "no," Moore said.

Farm census began in 1840 and since 1920 has been taken every five years. Congress recently changed the month for farm census taking to October in an effort to give enumerators better weather conditions. The census was formerly taken in January, Moore said

Shape Indicates Traffic Sign Meanings

"Know your signs of life — and stay alive!"

Fred Rohr, president of the San Diego County Traffic Safety Council, gave this advice today to the people of San Diego County in referring to the "Signs of Life" traffic safety program which his group is sponsoring during August.

"Signs of life are the traffic signs, signals and pavement markings which remind motorists and pedestrians of the law and warn them of potential dangers on the road ahead," Rohr said.

The name "signs of life" is appropriate, he explained, because countless lives would be saved if all drivers and walkers learned to recognize these signs and tried to follow their directions with courtesy.

Rohr listed the basic sign shapes as follows:

EIGHT - SIDED, yellow and black or red and white. This sign means STOP — one message, one requirement — never anything else.

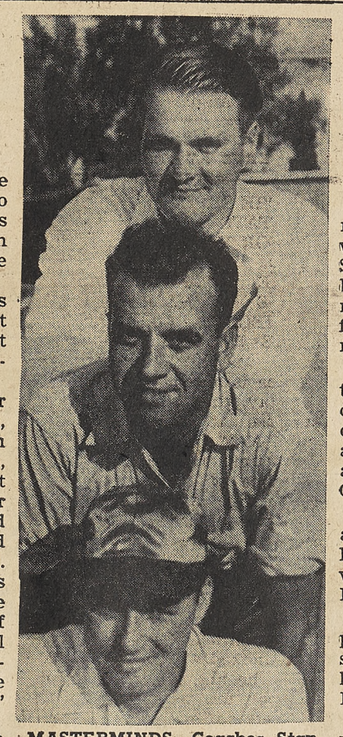

DIAMOND, also yellow and black. This sign indicates danger ahead, carries such messages as School, Narrow Bridge, Men Working, or the directional symbols describing curves, intersections, side roads, etc. They mean: slow down, stay alert.

RECTANGULAR, white with black or colored lettering. These tell of speed limits, mark no passing zones, give other regulatory information such as parking rules.

ROUND, yellow and black signs warn of a highway-railroad intersection 300 to 500 feet ahead.

RAILROAD CROSSBUCK marks the intersection of highway and railway.

Keep next weekend open, there will be plenty to do in La Mesa. See the flower show, watch the parade and then take in the carnival.

MASTERMINDS—Coaches Stan Calder and Steve Kercher stand over Steve Damron, manager of El Cajon's National League Little League all-Stars who won the district championship of El Cajon's three-day tournament held in El Cajon Thursday, Friday and Saturday. These men will lead the National Leaguers into Linda Vista's regional play-offs, Friday.

Crown Captured EC National League

to stop the Escondido National contingent and El Cajon's National Leaguers erased any chances for Escondido's American League nine.

Opening game Saturday had scheduled the two Escondido clubs, but the American league team decided to withdraw from the tournament, which gave El Cajon's American League a chance at consolation honors.

Coming back with a consistently outstanding southpaw, Manager Benson sent little Roy Hogsed to the hill in bidding for a tournament victory. Hogsed pitched solid four-hit ball and allowed only one run in three innings.

Benson then sent fireballing Bobby O'Neill to the hill and the Carpenter ace also turned in a good pitching performance. In the final three innings, poor fielding support gave Escondido five runs, though O'Neill gave up only four hits.

El Cajon scored a run in the fourth and sixth innings, but Joe Galindo's Escondido club was not to be beaten.

In the tourney finale, Steve Damron, manager of El Cajon's National league, sent strong Frank Ricco out to stop the tourney darkhorse threat, Lakeside.

Manager Pete Peterson sent Mike Sandoval to the mound. Peterson's All-Stars again gave a good account of themselves, coming up with some fine fielding plays and giving Damron and his coaches, Steve Kercher and Stan Calder, many worries.

Inability to get the usual number of base hits probably hurt Lakeside's chances more than any one thing. Ricco with a hopping fast ball and good assortment of curves held the Lakesider's to five hits and gave up only three runs.

Sandoval had control troubles, which National League batsmen took advantage of, and Peterson brought back the opening day pitcher, Danny Kern, in an effort to stop National League hitting.

A victory was not in the books for Lakeside, however, as the win-hungry National Leaguers ran up five runs and banged out six hits before leaving the field as tournament champions.

The National League nine journeys to Linda Vista for the regional playoffs on Friday at 2 p. m. The winner of the Linda Vista tourney takes on the champion of Arizona two weeks from now and that winner goes to Santa Monica for the far west championships. Santa Monica's far western winner will then make its bid in the Little League World Series tilts at Williamsport.

Picnic Planned For Camp Broberg By Squadron 346

El Cajon's Air Explorer Squadron 346, Boy Scouts of America, will hold an all-squadron picnic, Sunday, August 22 at Camp Broberg, feting all members of the newly formed group and their families, according to a squadron report.

Sponsored by the El Cajon Rotay club, Squadron 346 has recently been formed as a branch of El Cajon Boy Scout troop 46 and is open to boys between the ages of 14 and 18, according to Gerald A. Dow, squadron advisor.

"Squadron 346 was established about June 4, when it was learned that several local boys were interested in aeronautics," Dow said.

Twelve boys, comprising the present membership of the squadron, had an interesting exhibit at the recent Boy Scout Fair, it was reported.

Through cooperation with the El Cajon Flying Service, Squadron 346 had a display of instruments and charts plus a cutaway sections of a wing and a four-cylinder Continental engine at the fair.

Most recent activity of the squadron was a beach party, held Friday night.

The local squadron meets once monthly in a room provided by the flying service at Gillespie Field, Dow said.

"Our meetings are usually held on Wednesday nights at Gillespie Field at 7:30 p. m., Dow concluded.

Residents Can Look But Mustn't Touch

A recently publisized map showing proposed road systems in and around La Mesa had the symbol for a grade separation in the approximate location of Mariposa avenue south of the city limits.

This grade separation, however, will not be built, according to the State Division of Highways. Such a traffic interchange was requested by County Road Comissioner Joe Macks but was turned down by the division as unjustified because of the lack of present or anticipated traffic.

Residents living close to the freeway in that area will be treated to the sight and sound of traffic growling up the long grade, but will be unable to use the freeway themselves without traveling three-quarters of a mile or more on narrow streets.

EC Sales Tax Hike On Council Agenda

A leading item on the agenda of the El Cajon City Council's meeting last night (Monday) was a proposed one-half of one percent rise in the city sales tax.

The proposed hike in the sales tax would go for the exclusive use of the city park and recreation program, according to a report from the El Cajon Recreation Commission.

Optimists See Film About Wine Industry

Joe Cooper, member of the wine advisory board, state department of agriculture, showed an interesting film entitled "Wine Growing in America," and gave details about this industry when he attended the Lakeside Optimist club's dinner-meeting last Thursday night in Lakeside Cafe.

Before showing the film, the speaker described the duties of the board, which was formed in 1935, and emphasized that the expenses of the board are paid by the grape growers themselves, not by state taxpayers as a whole.

California, which produces more than 90 percent of the nation's wine, has the strictest regulations of any state concerning wine, Cooper said.

"In the last 10 years, California has gone to the top in the wine business," he added. "Previously, however, the state's wine business had been starving."

Cooper answered many questions concerning the wine industry before the meeting ended. His talk was well received.

Ken Dittus, Optimist representative on the Lakeside Little League committee, praised the committee members for the vast improvements made in the local ball park during the past year. At the last annual meeting on August 30, he said, committee officers for 1954-55 will be elected.

The Optimists voted to send a letter of thanks to the Little League committee; appointed Dittus and Marty Christiansen to serve as club representatives for another year, and voted to purchase malts for the Little League players when they turned in their uniforms Saturday.

Wayne Dixon disclosed plans to organize a Junior Optimist club in Lakeside, and he also gave a few details about the Lakeside All-Stars' 5-4 victory over the El Cajon team in the tournament Thursday afternoon.

Harvey Huffman was appointed chairman of a committee that will help promote a new Optimist club building in El Cajon.

CLASSY CREW—Lakeside's Little League All-Stars shown above posed for this team picture just before journeying to El Cajon to battle the National League All-Stars for the district championships staged in El Cajon Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Loaded with long-ball hitters and flashy fielders, this club came within two runs of copping the district title, losing the championship to El Cajon, 5-3, a hard fought contest. —Staff Photo.

Mariners Club To Hold Picnic

The Mariners club of Lakeside Community Presbyterian church will hold a picnic-style August meeting at El Monte Park at 6:30 p. m. Friday.

This club is a group of couples who have banded together for fellowship and service in the church with all responsibilities being jointly held by husband and wife.

Couples interested in doing things together are cordially invited to join the club.

Registration Open For Big Dog Show

Distribution of premium lists and entry blanks for the annual Summer All Breed Dog Show Aug. 29 of the Silver Bay Kennel Club of San Diego has started, Jack Bradshaw, show superintendent, announced yesterday.

In San Diego county the lists will be available at pet shops, veterinarians and the County Humane Society, which is cooperating wholeheartedly in the event. Ada Dellinger of El Cajon is in charge of the local distribution.

More than 70 different varieties will be shown from 10 a. m. to 7 p. m. in the Electric Building in Balboa Park.

One of the most extensive lists of trophies ever posted for a Southland dog show is expected to bring many of the nation's pedigreed dogs here for the show.

Special emphasis will be given specialty shows, says Bradshaw. The Cocker Spaniel, Boston Terrier, Boxer and Staffordshire Terrier Clubs are already making plans for the outstanding shows.

Fellowship Group Meets Early Today

Lakeside's Nine Reaches Finals Of Area Tourney

Although Lakeside's Little League All-Stars bowed 5-3 to the El Cajon Nationals in Area 2 tournament finals in El Cajon Saturday, after chalking up two tournament victories, they played a brand of baseball which established them as one of San Diego county's most talented junior baseball teams.

On Thursday, starting tourney play, the Lakeside sluggers outscored the El Cajon American League All-Stars, 5 to 4. Then they qualified for the finals by tripping the Escondido National League All-Stars, 8 to 5, on Friday.

Highlights of Thursday's victory included a spectacular foul ball catch off the wire and two homeruns by Joe Sewell; Bob Isom's homer which started the decisive Lakeside rally in the fifth; top pitching by Danny Kern; a timely single by Eddie Cate; heads-up ball on a play at second by Ronnie Ray; fleet footwork in the outfield by Wally Kephart; Shortstop Mickey Kemp's alertness, and a pinch-hit by Tony Burdrick. All combined to give the locals their victory.

Friday's game was another thrill-packed affair with the Lakesiders tying the score in the fifth inning and going ahead for the victory in the seventh behind the heart-in-the-mouth pitching of Bob Isom.

Kirby Red, Isom's battery mate, shared honors with the local pitcher by belting a homer with Danny Kern and Eddie Cate on base to chalk up Lakeside's first three runs in the second inning.

In the fifth, Isom helped his cause along by hitting a triple that sent Wally Kephart and Mickey Kemp across the plate and tied the score at 5 to 5.

Two innings later Cecil Carender drew a walk and slid safely to second on Mickey Kemp's single. Then Kerns belted the homerun that broke up the game. The fine work of Joe Sewell and Tony Burdick on the bases also helped win this game,

League officials said much credit is deserved by Stan Peterson and Joe Pignatelli, All-Stars manager and coach, for the fine work they did in directing the boys. "It was gratifying, too, to see so many Lakeside people at the games, supporting our boys all the way," they added.

Hazards Faced

San Diego county vacationers continue facing hazards which have proven dangerous in the past. Boating and swimming are popular but they are healthful and safe only if the rules of common sense are followed.

All-Stars Gave Local Backers Reason To Cheer

Bob Isom, 12-year-old pitcher who limited the Escondido sluggers to nine scattered hits Friday also admitted he will never forget the 1954 season. "Every time I played I enjoyed it still more," Bob said. "I liked playing in the all-star game most of all, too, because you meet a lot of good players and it's a real sport."

With these 2 youthful players' statements representing the general opinion of all the Lakeside All-Stars, local civic and business leaders are proud that they backed the Little League teams this year; and they are anxious to follow suit for many years to come.

Many Activities

In the course of the summer months, thousands will enjoy the numerous receational activities nature has provided in San Diego County.

Advisory Group Studies Plans For Swim Pool

The proposed municipal swimming pool for Lakeside was the most important of three major issues discussed Monday evening of last week by the Citizen's Advisory committee.

The committee favored obtaining a pool for this area, and Lindo Park was recommended as the ideal site. Details regarding the type of pool, costs, size and other relative matters were discussed, and further details will be viewed at another meeting scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Monday, August 30, in the Education Building.

All organizations are urged to send representatives to the August meeting, and the public is also invited to attend. The views and support of as many people as possible is sought, officials said, because it is their hope that county support can be obtained if a pool is recommended.

Other items on the agenda at last week's meeting was the recommendation that the present by-laws be changed to have the Citizen's Advisory committee meetings held monthly, instead of every other month. This proposal was approved.

After the children's insurance plan was discussed, committee members favored making a recommendation to the board of trustees to adopt this plan.
